This issue reports the result of yesterday's Goring Neighbourhood Plan referendum.

Result of the Goring Neighbourhood Plan Referendum on Thursday 4 July

The question on which Goring residents were asked to vote:

Do you want South Oxfordshire District Council to use the Neighbourhood Plan for Goring-on-Thames to help it decide planning applications in the neighbourhood area?

Steven Corrigan, Deputy Counting Officer for SODC, declared the result at 11.21pm at Storton Lodge, Icknield Road, Goring. The total number of votes cast was 1,327, which is 49.6% of the total 2,675 residents registered to vote. 835 voted YES (62.9%) and 492 voted NO (37.1%). No ballot papers were rejected.

Nigel Gilson, Chairman of the 'Vote Yes Campaign' Group, said after the count, "This result is very good news for the future of Goring."

The Plan now goes forward to South Oxfordshire District Council for its adoption process.
