Flu vaccination clinic this Saturday at Goring and Woodcote the Goring surgery is cancelled

(issued on Monday 13 September):

We have been informed that there will be a 2 week delay in delivery of our flu vaccines. This is a national problem and is due to transportation issues.

Unfortunately, our clinic at Goring Surgery on the Saturday 18 September will be cancelled.

We are still hoping to hold a clinic at Woodcote Surgery on Saturday 9 October as planned. Please do not contact the surgery at this time - we

We are delighted to announce the opening of our Art Gallery and framing business in Goring on Thames, on Friday, 24 September. My name is Dee Singleton, and I am a framer and lover of art. Reeds Art & Framing will be run primarily by me, with my husband, Richard, backing me up if I have to be elsewhere. The bespoke framing workshop will be at the back of the Gallery section, which will extend across the width of the frontage

National running races The Chiltern Wonderland 50-mile run The annual Chiltern Wonderland 50-mile run will take place for the 6th time. The event HQ is at Goring Village around the area outside the hall. The course is a single 50-mile loop through the Chilterns, with 80% on trails, 20% on roads and it starts and finishes in Goring. Runners have 13 hours to make it back to the village hall to finish. The first runner is expected back at around 3.30pm and only a handful are expected to finish before 5pm. The remainder of the runners completing the loop will do so between 7.30 and 9pm when the event and the Goring Village Hall HQ close. Please do give the runners a wave and a cheer if you see them!
