Goring-on-Thames Parish Council recognises the need for displays of gratitude for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II's long reign and many years of dedicated public service.

We welcome floral tributes to be laid inside the Rectory Garden, along the curved wall beside the road.

Books of Condolence can be found in the Library, the Church of St Thomas, and the Parish Office during opening hours. The Hub in the arcade is also holding pages on behalf of the Parish Council.

We ask that floral tributes do not obstruct the flag pole and they be unwrapped to avoid plastic waste.

Mrs S Edmunds
Clerk to the Council
